

Mansion Open House
Tuesday, January 13
Governor's Mansion
3:30 – 5:30

Approximately 1200 people are expected. The event is free and open to the public.

Guests will enter the Mansion grounds through the West Gate. They will walk around to the front door and enter the Mansion there. Haley and Marsha will greet the first several guests then move to the front Rose Room. At about 4:00 they will go to the reception on the north lawn of the Mansion.

Volunteers will assist with directing people and serving punch and cookies. Mansion docents will be stationed in each room to answer any questions.

Guests will tour both the upstairs and downstairs historical areas then exit through the Garden Room (east side of the Mansion). They will be given a "Mississippi Moment" chocolate.

Although the official hours are 3:30-5:30, guests will be allowed in the Mansion after 5:30, if there are people still waiting.
